A surcharge of R45.00 per tea break for Kosher

Please also note that we do not cater for Halaal friendly or Kosher friendly meals and that all Halaal and Kosher meals are ordered in from an outside catering company and therefore need to be ordered 48 hours in advance

As a standard, with all set menus, we will provide a vegetarian meal option for 2.5% of the total number of guests as part of your menu price; for any amount requested over and above these 2.5% a charge will be levied accordingly.

For any other specific special meal requests for set menus, ie fish, chicken or any other, the dishes must be chosen from our normal current menu selection and these will be charged accordingly, over and above your set menu price

Regarding other special meals like dairy free, gluten, lactose and diabetic, these must be requested 48 hours in advance for specific dishes, otherwise Chef will choose and prepare a meal in line with the specific dietary requirement.

If a client requires our Chef to draft a new menu using different ingredients to the existing ones from our menu pack, please note that the menu will take 48 hours to be drafted and sent through to the client
